The U.S. Mission in Japan (Tokyo) is seeking eligible and qualified applicants for the position of Scientific Affairs Specialist. The offer and starting date will be contingent upon the outcome of the security clearance and funding availability.

NOTE: Due to the high volume of applications received, we will only contact applicants who are being considered. Thank you for your understanding.

BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION:

The Senior Scientific Affairs Specialist in the Environment, Science, and Technology, and Health (ESTH) Section is responsible for analyzing and reporting on Government of Japan (GOJ) policies related to the environment and science and technology, including but not limited to climate change and pollution issues, the ocean environment, maritime affairs, living marine and mammal resources, protected and endangered species, and marine science and technology. He/she advises the ESTH Chief, Economic Minister-Counselor, and Embassy Officers on pertinent policy developments, strategy, and on the Japanese decision making process. This position is responsible for performing special analytical and reporting tasks, some of which involve travel. Extensive direct contact with middle and senior-level GOJ officials, political circles, academia, NGOs, industry, and labor unions is required.

This position advocates U.S. ESTH policies and reports on GOJ policies, industry, scientific and technological trends and political developments. Some of these reports are required on a regular basis while others are more frequent and address issues of immediate importance. When combined, these reports provide information, which significantly affects the formulation of US – Japan policies regarding environmental issues, management and conservation of the ocean environment, science and technology, and the protection of marine and terrestrial species.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:

All applicants must address each selection criterion detailed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each item. Please see the "Tips for Applying" page on our website for more details.

1. Education: A college degree in public policy, economics, political science, international relations, or the natural sciences.
2. Prior Work Experience: At least five years of pertinent work experience in a specialist field such as environmental policy, oceans and fisheries management, science and technology, and economic matters.
3. Language: Level IV* (Fluent) Japanese and English. Language proficiency may be tested.
4. Knowledge: The incumbent must have knowledge about key government and scientific Ministries, related organizations, and officials, industry representatives, and Non-Government Organizations (NGO), as well as policies, rules, and regulations related to domestic and global environmental issues, oceans and fisheries matters, scientific and technology developments, and economics in Japan.
5. Skills and Abilities: The incumbent must be able to create and maintain effective contacts with mid-level and senior Japanese government, industry and scientific institution officials. He/she must be able to obtain and analyze data and prepare reports on GOJ policies and the activities of NGO's, scientific institutions, and oceans/maritime-related industries. He/she must be able to obtain information by personal interview and review published/non-published information.

* U.S. Government language standards. For equivalents in other standard tests, please see <http://japan.usembassy.gov/e/info/tinfo-jobtips.html>

SELECTION PROCESS:

When qualified, applicants who are U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Members (USEFMs) and/or preference-eligible U.S. Veterans are given a preference in hiring. Therefore, it is essential that these applicants make themselves known as having a hiring preference and specifically address the required qualifications above in their application.

HIRING PREFERENCE ORDER:

- (1) USEFM who is ALSO a preference-eligible U.S. Veteran
- (2) USEFM OR a preference-eligible U.S. Veteran
- (3) FS on LWOP

ADDITIONAL SELECTION CRITERIA:

1. Management may consider the following when determining successful candidacy: nepotism, conflicts of interest, budget, and residency status.
2. Current OR employees serving a probationary period are not eligible to apply. Current OR employees with an Overall Summary Rating of Needs Improvement or Unsatisfactory on their most recent Employee Performance Report (EPR) are not eligible to apply.

3. Current NOR employees hired on a Family Member Appointment (FMA) or a Personal Service Agreement (PSA) are not eligible to apply within the first 90 calendar days of their employment, unless they have a When Actually Employed (WAE) work schedule.
4. Candidates who are EFMs, USEFMs, AEFMs, or MOHs must have at least one year remaining on their sponsor's tour of duty to be considered eligible to apply for this position.
5. Applications must be post marked by/on the closing date.

HOW TO APPLY:

Applicants must submit the following documents to be considered:

1. Universal Application for Employment (UAE) (DS-174/read-only file), which is available on our website: <http://japan2.usembassy.gov/e/info/tinfo-jobs.html>
2. Academic credential (e.g., copy of transcript, diploma, or equivalent)
3. Language test score that is less than five years old (e.g., TOEIC, TOEFL, STEP, CASEC, JLPT, J-CAT, etc.)
4. Any other documentation (e.g., driver's license, certificates, typing skills, etc.) that addresses the qualification requirements of the position as listed above.

IMPORTANT:

Applicants claiming a U.S. Veteran's preference must submit written documentation confirming eligibility (e.g., Member Copy 4 of Form DD-214, Letter from the Veteran's Administration, or certification documenting eligibility under the VOW Act with an expected discharge no later than 120 days after the certification is submitted) by the closing date of the vacancy announcement. If the written documentation confirming eligibility is not received in the HR office by the closing date of the vacancy announcement, the U.S. Veteran's preference will not be considered in the application process. Specific criteria for receiving a U.S. Veteran's preference may be found in HR/OE's Family Member Employment Policy (FMEP).

Appendix A - DEFINITIONS

Eligible Family Member (EFM): An EFM for employment purposes is defined an individual who meets all of the following criteria:

- U.S. Citizen or not a U.S. Citizen; and
- Spouse or same-sex domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610); or
- Child, who is unmarried and under 21 years of age or, regardless of age, is incapable of self-support. The term "child" shall include, in addition to natural offspring, stepchild, adopted child, and a child under legal guardianship of employee, spouse, or same-sex domestic partner when such child is expected to be under legal guardianship until 21 years of age and when dependent upon and normally residing with the guardian; or

- Parent (including stepparents and legally adoptive parents) of employee, spouse, or same-sex domestic partner, when such parent is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support; or
- Sister or brother (including stepsisters and stepbrothers, or adoptive sisters or brothers) of the employee, spouse, or same-sex domestic partner when such sibling is at least 51 percent dependent on the employee for support, unmarried, and under 21 years of age, or regardless of age, incapable of self-support; and
- Listed on the travel orders or approved Form OF-126 of a sponsoring employee, i.e., a direct-hire Foreign Service, Civil Service, or uniformed service member who is permanently assigned to or stationed abroad or, as appropriate, at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; and
- Is under chief of mission authority.

U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Member (USEFM): For purposes of receiving a preference in hiring for a qualified position, a USEFM is an individual who meets the following criteria:

- U.S. citizen; and
- The spouse or domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610) of the sponsoring employee, or a child of the sponsoring employee who is an unmarried child at least 18 years old; and
- Listed on the travel orders or approved Form OF-126, Foreign Service Residence and Dependency Report, of a sponsoring employee, i.e., a direct-hire Foreign Service, Civil Service, or uniformed service member who is permanently assigned to or stationed abroad at a U.S. mission, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; and who is under chief of mission authority, and either:
 - Resides at the sponsoring employee's post of assignment abroad or, as appropriate, at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan; or
 - Resides at an involuntary separate maintenance allowance (ISMA) location authorized under 3 FAM 3232.2. If residing at an ISMA location, the individual will not be listed on the sponsoring officers travel orders, but will have a Form SF-1190, Foreign Allowances Application, Grant and Report, processed authorizing ISMA.

Appointment Eligible Family Member (AEFM): An individual who may qualify for a direct-hire Foreign Service appointment on either a family member appointment (FMA; see below) or a temporary appointment (TEMP; see below) provided that all of the following criteria are met:

- Is a U.S. citizen; and
- Is the spouse or domestic partner (as defined in 3 FAM 1610) of the sponsoring employee, or a child of the sponsoring employee who is unmarried and at least 18 years old; and
- Is listed on the travel orders or approved Form OF-126, Foreign Service Residence and Dependency Report, of a sponsoring employee, i.e., a direct-hire Foreign Service, Civil Service, or uniformed service member who is permanently assigned to or stationed abroad at a U.S. mission, or at an office of the American Institute in Taiwan (AIT), and who is under chief of mission authority; and

- Is residing at the sponsoring employee's post of assignment abroad or, as appropriate, office of the American Institute in Taiwan; and
- Does not receive a U.S. Government retirement annuity or pension from a career in the U.S. Foreign Service or Civil Service.

Other family members, including EFM parents (parents granted EFM status pursuant to 14 FAM 511.3(2)), or dependents on direct-hire Foreign Service, Civil Service, or uniformed service members travel orders or approved Form OF-126 who do not meet all of these criteria are not AEFMs for purposes of 3 FAM 8200. Both AEFMs and USEFMs receive a hiring preference for all positions advertised at post.
